

Volunteers Rolex Challenge Tour Grand Final 2024

The organization of Rolex Challenge Tour Grand Final launches the campaign of recruitment of volunteers to collaborate during the celebration of this tournament that will take place in Alcanada Golf between 31 October and 03 November and will have the presence of the best European Players of Challenge Tour.

Volunteers will participate directly in the execution of the tournament, developing a fundamental role for the good development of the competition and thus contributing to the overall success of the event.

Number of volunteer days

In principle collaboration with the organization will be required from Thursday 31 to Sunday 03. The number of days to be covered will depend on the availability of each person but preference will be given to those who request 4 days.

Schedule

From 07:00 to 17:30 h. To be distributed according to the assigned task.

Minimum age and selection criteria

To have knowledge of golf

Be at least 14 years old

They must use the uniformity that is given to them and comply with the selected schedule and comply with the established schedule.

Consideration

Food and drink

Clothing provided by the organization

Green Fees:

- 4 Days of work – 3 GF
- 3 Days of work – 2 GF
- 2 Days of work – 1 GF
- 1 Day of work – 0 GF

Positions to be filled:

Moving marshal: Person in charge of following the game that has been assigned to him during the 18 holes.

Walking Scorers: The person who follows the assigned game during the 18 holes, always behind and without disturbing the players, scoring the results of the players of the game.

Leaderboard Operators: It has its position on the general results boards distributed by the route and its job is to change depending on the results.

Ball Spoter: Person in charge of controlling the falling of the balls in the most conflicting holes.

TV Assistants: Television assistant.

Assistant field of practice: Person in charge of controlling and organizing the field of practice.

Registration process

Through the registration form you will find in the following link

What happens once I sign up?

A process is initiated by which will be selected those volunteers who meet the minimum selection requirements and whose characteristics best fit the positions and needs, with preference being given to members of Alcanada Golf, and then those who have already volunteered in previous editions.

Frequently asked questions

Is transportation or accommodation paid?

No. Transportation and accommodation are provided by each volunteer

Is there financial compensation for volunteers?

No financial compensation is provided. There are a series of non-economic compensations for the dedication and work done.